Deputy Director for Support

In the light of the recent Bureau of the Budget directive on non-reimbursable details, I should think we might write to the appropriate person in the White House (I could write to [redacted] if you want me to) and get the records straight on [redacted]. In the letter we should call attention to the BOB circular, state that we are anxious to regularize [redacted] [redacted], and ask the White House what their desires are.
